

STAFF PROMOTIONS

February 13, 2007 - Omaha NE. Primus Sterilizer Company, LLC a manufacturer of sterilizers for the Healthcare, Life Sciences and Industrial markets announces promotion of personnel in the Sales Department.

PRIMUS Director of Sales and Project Management

David Schall has been promoted to Director of Sales and Project Management. This position recognizes Dave for his dedication to our company, clients, and field sales and service teams. Dave will assume additional duties in both sales and project management with particular emphasis on managing the Authorized Service Agent program and installations requiring factory field supervision.

Dave a long time resident of Omaha joined PRIMUS in 2002 and has over 27 years in sales. He previously held the position as Manager of Sales Administration.

Dave has a wealth of knowledge of the complexity of sales including design, application, installation, supervision and maintenance of equipment. With his previous experience in assisting our field sales force with support activities related to quoting, contract management, order processing and his background of working with consulting engineers, clients, state and local agencies in providing "turn key" installations, Dave continues to be a great asset to PRIMUS.

Dave will excel in his new role and our field sales and service organizations, as well as, our customers will benefit from his expertise.

Please join us in congratulating Dave on his new position.
